THE REV. F. H. FITZPATRICK, D. D.,
Pastor of the First Baptist Church,
Baltimore, Md.
(Copyright, 1918, Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR DECEMBER 15

JOSEPH FORGIVES HIS BROTHERS.

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 45:1-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—If ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.—Matthew 6:14.
EVANGELICAL TEXT—If ye forgive not your brethren, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.—Matthew 6:15.

1. Joseph Discovers His Identity to His Brothers (vs. 1-15).

He treated his brothers harshly at first, his purpose being to ascertain as to whether they were the same men who had sold him into slavery. He then reproached them for their guilt and heartily rebuked them. He then revealed his identity to them, and they were brought to him in a state of grief and repentance. This act of Joseph revealed to his brothers that he was not a stranger, but a brother who had been sold into slavery by them. He then revealed his identity to them, and they were brought to him in a state of grief and repentance. This act of Joseph revealed to his brothers that he was not a stranger, but a brother who had been sold into slavery by them.

2. Joseph's Efforts to Assuage the Grief of His Brothers (vs. 16-26).

When Joseph revealed himself to his brothers, the first question was, "Where is our father?" Joseph then revealed to his brothers that he was not a stranger, but a brother who had been sold into slavery by them. He then revealed his identity to them, and they were brought to him in a state of grief and repentance. This act of Joseph revealed to his brothers that he was not a stranger, but a brother who had been sold into slavery by them.

3. Joseph's Efforts to Assuage the Grief of His Brothers (vs. 27-34).

Joseph then revealed to his brothers that he was not a stranger, but a brother who had been sold into slavery by them. He then revealed his identity to them, and they were brought to him in a state of grief and repentance. This act of Joseph revealed to his brothers that he was not a stranger, but a brother who had been sold into slavery by them.

4. Joseph's Efforts to Assuage the Grief of His Brothers (vs. 35-46).

Joseph then revealed to his brothers that he was not a stranger, but a brother who had been sold into slavery by them. He then revealed his identity to them, and they were brought to him in a state of grief and repentance. This act of Joseph revealed to his brothers that he was not a stranger, but a brother who had been sold into slavery by them.

THE Government has said that Holiday must be conducted so as to avoid the December congestion. The Government has official cognizance of the situation and dealers know the importance of carrying on holiday business this year strictly in accordance with official requirements.

The Government desires that Christmas gifts be more along the line of "practical" goods than the usual gifts of toys and novelties. The children are to have their play things as desired that the useful be substituted for the ornamental.

The Government desires people to buy wisely and to give gifts that cannot in any way be construed as representing a waste of money.

We are trying to live up to Uncle Sam's request and ask your co-operation.

JOHN A. SHEPPARD

A good man has gone to rest.

On Thursday morning, Nov. 7th, Mr. John Andrew Shepard passed quietly away at his home at Buckingham C. H. of a complication of diseases, aged 63 years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Shepard. He was born and reared in Buckingham county, where he spent the most of his life, and was well known and much beloved by all who knew him. He was twice married. He was a member of the Baptist church of Buckingham and made profession of Christ when about 15 years old, and a devoted church member. He finished his course at the age of 63 and it was a life well spent, and he kept the faith to the end, giving expression a few hours before dissolution that "all was well."

He leaves one brother, Mr. Peter Shepard, of Buckingham. Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. John Spencer, and many friends were there to pay a last tribute to his memory.

A FRIEND.

Best Graphite from Ceylon.

The largest graphite mines in the world and those producing the best grades of graphite are in Ceylon, and there are also important deposits in Mexico and China. In the making of graphite pencils, the graphite is combined with clay, and the best clay for this purpose was formerly obtained in Russia, which country are also graphite mines, but producing grades distinctly inferior to that which is mined in Ceylon.

Concrete Telegraph Poles.

The New Zealand government is reducing its wooden telegraph poles and is substituting concrete poles of reinforced concrete.

Relief Not Burden.

A yoke is not an instrument of torture; it is not a malicious contrivance for making work hard; it is not a device to make hard labor light. And yet men speak of the yoke of Christ. If it were a slavery, and look upon those who wear it as objects of compassion.

God's Demands.

It is not from severity that God demands much from men in order to obtain knowledge of him, and it is of his kindness that he wills the need for effort to grow capacities of receiving much by his grace which—Miles Eckhart.

Abiding in God's Will.

The peace, freedom, and blessedness of all souls consists in the abiding in God's will. Towards this union with God for which it is created the soul strives perpetually—Miles Eckhart.
